Show Home to Your Home!

Beechwood Homes has long been established as a leading home builder in Australia for over 35 years and is known for delivering stylish and modern homes. The "Edgecliffe Vibe" is no exception combining spaciousness and style in this 260sqm family abode. Indulge in all the finer characteristics a home of this calibre has to offer from the grand entry to the array of living spaces for the whole family to enjoy. The kitchen is synonymous with being the hub of any home and this stylish and expansive kitchen is second to known with stone back splash, breakfast bar and an integrated doorway to the huge walk in pantry. The open plan design allows a seamless flow from the spacious interiors to the superior undercover terrace, backyard and manicured gardens to entertain all year round. The master suite has been designed with privacy and comfort in mind, with a classic palatial ensuite, generous walk-in robe and your own personal balcony to get away from the everyday. Surrounded by quality residences and footsteps to the world class marina, local beaches, shops and schools makes this the ideal family home. With all of this and much more on offer this property is an essential on your search to find the perfect dream home.
