This charming home sits proudly on whopping 1335m2 block of land and will suit not only owner occupiers and investors but also buyer looking for a large block with possible subdivision or dual occupancy potential.

From the front the home will entice you in with its covered front veranda and cute street appeal.

Once inside you will discover 3 great sized bedrooms, built-in robes original tongue & groove walls, wide hoop pine floors, air-conditioning and extra high ceilings.

The kitchen of the home is modern & quite striking with trendy colours and a large amount of storage space, a dishwasher and laundry facilities. This large space has plenty of room for an island bench or table and chairs.

The adjoining area would make the perfect lounge or family room with plenty of natural light and room.

Outside this home truly shines with a massive yard for the kids, pets or possible pool and every buyer is sure to love the gigantic shed.

The shed offers parking for up to 4 cars, has shelving for a workshop area and is fully powered making it perfect for the home handy person or just ideal to be used as extra storage.

The home itself appears very solid and has a great roof that was replaced some years ago ensuring many years of peace of mind.
