Scarborough Beach Cottage 500 meters to Queens Beach

If you are looking for a low maintenance, cute and cosy beach cottage in a sort after area of Scarborough then look no further, this one is a little beauty.

Positioned only 500 meters to Queens Beach and only 1km to Scarborough Village, it is a rare find and properties like this one are often in demand, so I suggest you act fast as I don't think it'll last long.

On arrival, at this leafy property, you'll notice a traditional white picket fence, bull nose tiled roof at the front and a quaint timber deck surrounded by lush trees. Enter the home to open plan living, polished timber floors and a kitchen offering open space with plenty of cupboard storage and benches. The kitchen leads out to a second fully covered timber deck overlooking a shady garden.

There are 2 good sized bedrooms and between the beautiful sea breezes and the ceiling fans throughout the property you'll never feel the heat. The current owners have also converted the single lock up garage into a teenagers retreat.

This property sits on a 410m2 block with side access, is loaded with potential and what better place to live to be close to bus stops, train network, airport and shopping centres.

Priced to meet the market so whether you're a first home buyer, investor or downsizing, make your move!
