The Red Gate

From the bold red gate entrance this home is filled with tranquillity and relaxation, once you walk through that gate the outside world is irrelevant. The two storey home is perfect for any family looking to live in their forever home, from the location to the layout, your family will make life long memories.

Natural lighting is the staple of this home, everywhere you look light is shining through. With architectural designs throughout the home, little wow moments are sure to be had. The kitchen is light and airy with ample amounts of cupboard storage, opening out into the dining area that provides you with reverse cycle air conditioning and high quality hybrid flooring.

The large living area is perfect size for the whole family, whether you're watching TV or the kids playing in the backyard. With opportunity to even put an informal entertaining area in the corner. The internal laundry also provides the bottom floor with a shower and toilet with access from outside, perfect for that rinse off after being at the nearby beach.

Upstairs has a front and back deck perfect for that morning or evening sun, the 2 west facing bedrooms at the back of the home offer access to the full length deck. All 3 bedrooms have ample amounts of space that include built in wardrobes. A feature this property provides is the 2nd family room perfect for the kids to have their own area, opening up onto the front deck overlooking the stunning ocean views. Upstairs also has the 2nd bathroom servicing the 3 bedrooms.

The large fully fenced back/ front yard is all connected, with ample amounts of room for the kids to play or storage area for the caravan or boat. The double lock up garage and additional carport are serviced with an internal bathroom, with the opportunity to turn into a workshop or granny flat.

Location is key when talking about your family home and 6 Simon Street is directly across from the beautiful playground in a quiet safe street, only a short distance away from the beach, general stores and cafes.
