Hidden behind a modest front facade stands this meticulously renovated family home offering genuine Cypress hardwood flooring throughout and a steel frame - this home was built to stand the test of time. Careful attention to detail and a genuine love for this home after 23yrs of ownership, has ensure the transformation of this property is close to perfection. Throughout the renovations, the owners had the intention of this being their forever home but their circumstances have changed which offers a rare opportunity for the lucky next owners.

The spacious kitchen has the luxury of gas cooking, a picturesque outlook from the windows and loads of storage plus the adjacent dining area opens out with bi-fold doors onto an expansive covered deck. There's a large office and separate family space away from the main living area with caters for all the needs of a growing or grown family.

Equally impressive on the outside, this property is indeed the perfect entertainer. Every area of the yard is a usable space, with low maintenance, landscaped gardens, large grassy lawn, two separate oversized entertainment areas, double width garden shed, powered, covered pavilion overlooking the full sized, self cleaning pool. You'll undoubtedly be the host for many memorable gatherings of your family and friends.....Eventually.

The list of what's so special about this home is endless.
