Set on a good sized block in a conveniently but private South Forster location, this fully-renovated, picture postcard house presents a rare opportunity for those in search of the dream coastal lifestyle at an affordable price.

Upon entry, you will immediately fall in love with the fresh, vibrant styling and pristine interiors on offer. A compact floorplan features an air-conditioned open plan living zone that includes a lounge, dining & kitchen area. The kitchen showcases quality stainless appliances including a dishwasher and a feature wooden breakfast bar which is the ideal family hub.

For the desired indoor-outdoor flow, backyards don't get much better than this one. An expansive, covered alfresco area captures the cool breezes and afternoon sun. The massive yard beyond has low maintenance landscaping, a garden shed and provides heaps of space for the kids to run wild, or to even add a pool (STCA).

Back inside, all three bedrooms are good sized and offer built-in-robies and ceiling fans. A modern central bathroom services all-three and has again been finished with quality new fixtures and fittings and is complemented by a convenient separate toilet.

The home is complete with a tidy internal laundry with easy external access to the clothes line and a single automatic drive through garage.

This home will suit an array of buyers from downsizers, first-home owners to investors.

With all the hard work done here, this you can just move in and fall in love with this one-of-a-kind, feel good home and coveted easy living lifestyle.
