

16/1 Thread Lane, Waterloo, NSW 2017

Sold - 4/06/2020

Apartment 2  2

Enormous 137sqm North East Facing 2 Bedroom with Park View

Boasting stunning spacious interiors and an appealing layout capturing plenty of natural light and air flow, this extremely large North East Corner apartment in Divercity Waterloo is perfect lifestyle opportunity. Ideally located near Green Square Station and within minutes to hip eateries, boutiques and bars.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

- Stylish interiors with spacious sun soaked living and dining area
- Chic kitchen with oversized island bench, AEG Appliances
- North facing security apartment, 2.7m ceilings, air conditioning
- Oversized master suite with built in robes and balcony access
- Luxurious en-suite bathroom with over sized shower
- Large north facing wrap around balcony over looking the park
- Video Intercom, lift access, heated swimming pool and gym
- Open-air rooftop cinema, private landscaped courtyards
- Minutes to Danks Street, Surry Hills and Centennial Parklands
- CBD, transport, recreation centres, Secure basement parking with storage

Divercity Waterloo is a place that embodies the evolution of inner city living 1½ where location and lifestyle are at the forefront of the design and access to everything you love is at your doorstep. Located in the inner city hotspot of Waterloo, Divercity is a state of the art lifestyle building. Around the building you'll find the Danks Street cafe and gallery strip, the new East Village Shopping Centre as well as the convenience of Bourke Street buses and Green Square trains all within walking distance.

Listed By

Brendon Clark

Diana Clark

