Great for the Horse Lover

This fabulous site of just over 2,100 square metres is ideal for those with a couple of kids and the pet pony. The home has three good-sized bedrooms and a very large lounge. The kitchen, which has been updated, has beautiful cupboards, benches and plenty of room for the prepping of meals. The kitchen services a little breakfast bar, a casual eating area and has the luxury of a formal dining area as well. Externally the features continue with two huge sheds with one having three bays with sliding doors giving access from the front of the property. There is ample space for many vehicles including a large front driveway with a drive-through driveway. Zoned 'residential stables', the property is big enough for a few horses, so no more driving for miles and miles to feed them. The property is in a great part of Stirling North, is fully fenced, has air conditioning and ceiling fans and is just ideal for those looking for a bit of room. Currently rented at $300.00 per week, it even makes for a good solid investment.
