House 4 3 3

Coastal Chic

Bold, contemporary lines and a seamless indoor/outdoor flow characterize this stunning home in sought-after Lennox Head.

Form and function combine in the solar-passive, four-bedroom family home with studio, set on a sun-drenched level 2334m2 parcel of land.

Every design decision made in creating this modern space has been expertly considered. From material choices, to layout and alignment, to environmental considerations - the home is an outstanding example of contemporary, coastal luxury living. Beyond the exceptional aesthetics, the home has been designed to function perfectly as a busy family home with a separate sound-proofed media/tv room, as well as a vast open plan living, lounge, dining and kitchen which flow through expansive glass doors to the north facing outdoor area which includes a 11 metre ionized fully tiled inground pool and outdoor shower.

The home features four spacious bedrooms and three bathrooms. The master suite is a true retreat with a stunning ensuite, including a full bath and a walk-in dressing room.

The kitchen is an exercise in understated chic design, spacious and well-appointed with a separate butler's pantry.

Open plan living takes on heightened meaning in this spectacular home. 9ft high ceilings combine with selected voids to give a feeling of endless room to move.

Features such as concrete floors, stone bench tops and the extensive use of white throughout, combine to enhance the expansive feel of the home.

Spaces are open to each other, open to the outdoor living spaces, and open to design interpretation. With strong, clean lines and quality, subtle materials, the home has a timeless elegance which can be adapted and morphed to suit a variety of styles.

The property features 5kW solar power, and in addition to the connection to town water, also offers recycled water.

Many properties claim to offer 'resort-style living', however few truly meet the standard. This home is the exception. With a look and feel of a five-star resort this is a home designed for relaxing and entertaining. A warm and inviting space that offers a timeless sophistication that will stand the test of time.
