Your Piece of History...

Under Contract by James Sexton!

Offering exceptional history, character and charm, the original flour miller's home is reputedly one of the oldest in Mount Barker.

This unique four bedroom home comprises a country kitchen and combined living and dining area which has all the right historic touches to take you back to yesteryear. The rustic hand-hewn beams and large redgum plank flooring complement the original slate flagstones. French doors from the kitchen lead you outside to the spacious rear courtyard and garden with well established trees. All of this with the added feature of being situated in the historic heart of Mount Barker.

Escape the humdrum of modern homes and travel back 175 years to enjoy the timeless character and design this home has to offer.
