RENOVATED, ELEVATED IN A HANDY LOCATION

Looking for a low set home that has a great location with most of the hard work already done and away from flood waters I would say you have found a winner. This low set timber home offers great value for money with new carpet throughout and a renovated bathroom and kitchen, making this home appealing even to the less skilled renovators wanting to make their own impact on their home, while still being an attractive property to investors seeking to start or improve their property portfolio.
