Residential Land

AWESOME WEEKEND RETREAT OR LAND BANK FOR THE FUTURE

Set in secluded and tranquil surroundings is this picturesque 16 Hectare (nearly 40 acres) property. This land runs directly off a fully bitumen road and has power lines nearby for electricity connection. There exists 2 dams, and has bushland that entices wallabies and other animals to call it home. This property is ideal for someone wanting to create their own weekend retreat, or build their retirement home on. For those wanting to take a long term approach, this could well be an opportunity in the future to take advantage of South East Queensland's huge population growth.
