Brookfield is perfectly positioned between the Bundaberg CBD and Bargara Beach, It will be one of the most popular residential communities for all new home buyers.

Blocks are elevated and level to ensure value for money in construction.

On the home stretch, all underground services are now in place, kerbing has been installed, asphalt is installed and final trim over the allotments are now taking shape.

Everything about Brookfield is family friendly, complemented with a relaxed balance lifestyle that makes the community great place to come home to. You'll enjoy a healthy and active lifestyle away from the daily hustle and bustle.

Offering its new residents a peaceful residential community just minutes away from everything you need. Designed with family values in mind, your new neighbourhood is ideally located close to shopping centres, Aldi Shopping Centre, schools and is only a short drive to the Coral Coast's beautiful beaches.
