

15 Benny St, Woorim, QLD 4507

Sold - 3/02/2021

House 4 2 3

THE MOST SPECTACULAR HOME !!!!!!!

Want to walk to the beach every morning? This spectacular 4 Bedroom home is a stone's throw to the Woorim Beach Front and ticks so many boxes! Totally renovated! Nothing to do! All beautiful fittings and Fixtures it will just blow your mind!

Walking into the home, the beautiful open plan kitchen and dining area will take your breath away with its superb lighting that sets off the granite island bench. The owners have left nothing out with the 2pak white kitchen cupboards, gas cooktop with wok burner and electric oven, the grey flooring just finishing the modern feel to this home.

Bi fold doors lead from the dining room to the tiled front balcony, standing out there you can see the water with cargo ships passing by.

Plantation shutters give you the modern feel throughout the home. The upstairs lounge room is quite spacious with shutters looking down onto the huge downstairs 2nd living area.

The main bedroom has a walk in robe and ceiling fans, bedrooms 2 and 3 upstairs have also got robes and ceiling fans.

The upstairs bathroom has modern dark grey tiles and is perfectly finished off with a beautiful timber vanity.

Downstairs you have a separate bathroom beautifully finished off with the same touches as the bathrooms upstairs. Bedroom 4 is downstairs with robe, ceiling fans, and plantation shutters.

The 2nd very large living area is magnificent with its high ceilings, modern flooring and Bifold doors that open up bringing your outside alfresco area inside or vice versa !.

The 3 car garaging consisting of one underneath the home and the other is a double titan shed at the back of the yard with exposed concrete leading down the side of the house for your access to the back of the yard.

This is a property you don't want to miss so give Tracie Jennings a call to inspect !

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Listed By

Tracie Jennings

