House 4 3 1

"Uninterrupted Views of the Surrounding Countryside"

The perfect location is key when buying a property, and to have a home that is close to the township but has uninterrupted views of the beautiful Malmsbury countryside truly is a rarity. The comfortable weatherboard home comprises three spacious bedrooms, a theatre room/fourth bedroom with extra storage under the staircase. The home is equipped with reverse cycle split system and a wood heater ensuring year-round comfort throughout all seasons. For the chef of the household the colourful kitchen has plenty of space and storage with solid stone benchtops and a sizeable island bench.

Outside features green established gardens surrounding a fish pond, a great outdoor entertaining area and a studio that can be used for independent living, home office setup, crafts room or just extra storage.

Land size 956m2 approx. Plus a wonderful asset of 3000m2 of leased land to enjoy.

There is loads to see, you'll wish you made the move sooner!
