FALL IN LOVE

This beautiful, charming, older style home has been lovingly renovated, showcasing all the former glory of a bygone era. 10ft patterned ceilings, decorative cornice, stunning polished timber floors, picture rails and timber fretwork are some of the homes gorgeous features. Recently painted both inside and out plus new kitchen, bathroom and exquisite fixtures and fittings, the home will make many a buyer fall in love.

The home includes 3 bedrooms with the main having walk-in robe & french doors to the front deck. 2 rooms have been carpeted with the 3rd having polished timber floors. The grand formal lounge room is very spacious with air-conditioning and beautiful chandelier lighting. On the north side of the home is the large open plan living area which captures plenty of natural light, highlighting the homes stained glass windows. The central kitchen has been recently installed with stone benchtops, island bench and new appliances.

The property has vehicle access to the side of the home which takes you to the double lockup garage which has power connected and remote control access.

Situated in the sought after Girards Hill area, within walking distance to Lismore CBD, this home is a true delight. Don't let this chance go by, call today for your inspection.
