Bigger and Better Than You Think!

This is definitely a home you need to inspect to understand exactly what it offers.

Bigger and better this home will surprise and includes big rooms, great storage and a clever floor plan. As well as four bedrooms it offers an extra big study area, formal lounge and dining plus open plan living.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

The cleverly designed layout offers a double garage attached to the home and access via a sliding gate to a hard stand concreted area and a double carport that can also work as extra outdoor entertaining space. The yard is super low maintenance, full fenced in the back and includes an underground rain water tank to service the home.

Just good buying and wont last long.
