

Residential Land

23.97 Acres UNREAL VIEWS, AS RARE AS 'HENS TEETH'

Well I'll be buggered, finally we have some quality acreage close to town, but far enough away to secure a true 'Lifestyle' block of land on which to build.

Held by a renowned local business and local government identity, this my dears is which many of you seek, but rarely is it available.

This Lot is titled and ready to sell, plus I have a further two similar sized blocks also to share with you.

This Block has easy access, has a gentle and natural slope, bitumen road on the northern side and excellent non-sealed road along Ford Road.

The block will be all fully fenced and ready for your dream.

Call me any day, any time. This will most certainly not last long, BUYERS BE QUICK
