Renovate and Reap the Rewards

Situated within an easy stroll to the popular Wade Park in East Lismore, this lowset brick and terra-cotta tiled roof home is ready for a renovation makeover. The home features four bedrooms, central lounge room and new kitchen plus an enclosed back verandah creating another living space. The yard is level and provides plenty of scope for a play area for the kids and room for a veggie patch. Constructed circa 1970's a handyman could transform this property with a fresh coat of paint, new floorcoverings and light fittings to create a very comfortable family home or rental investment. Such a convenient position handy to the university, schools and sports fields. Reap the rewards from your renovation efforts.
