The layout of this home creates great separation between the different rooms. The living room at the front of the property flows through to a central hub - all the other rooms are located off this area. Across the back of the property there's a large eat-in kitchen, the bathroom and the large main bedroom (complete with built-in robes). The other two bedrooms are queen-sized, one with built in robes. There's a separate laundry at the rear of the property and a low-maintenance yard.

Ideally located this property is within walking distance of QEII Hospital, Griffith University, parks and local shops. It's just a short drive to Aldi, Sunnybank Plaza, Market Square and Garden City Shopping Centre. Located in the Coopers Plain State Schools & Sunnybank State High School Catchment areas, there are a number of private schools nearby too - Brisbane Christian College, St Thomas More, St Pius X Catholic Primary School. Getting around is easy with a bus stop just across the road, the train station a short stroll away and easy access to multiple motor ways.
