By Appointment.

Surrounded by greenery this beautiful home has a fantastic shady entertainment area so that you can enjoy the garden year round. This leads straight into the house via the original retro-style glass doors and opens into a sunroom and dining area. From here you can enjoy the sweetest kitchen with pale pink cabinetry and a gas stove ensuring you start every day with a smile.

The lounge area is cosy space to relax in and all four bedrooms boast split system cooling and ceiling fans and there is even a study. The bathroom has recently had a few new modern touches added to its classic feel, and now boasts a modern vanity and new glass screening to the shower. There is also a massive laundry in its own outdoor room with plenty of storage space.

And lastly, the shed. This is a fabulous workshop-style space with loads of room for all the projects and toys, and at approx. 14.6m x 6m you should have space aplenty.

Priced to please and guaranteed to delight, this most welcoming of homes is one to put on your must see list.
