Immediately impressing with a grand entry; sleek tiles and a crisp contemporary palette flows throughout an interior that delivers refined living in multiple spaces. Embracing both formal and informal living, along with the versatility to separate living quarters when desired, there is a large selection of spaces in which to choose to unwind including formal dining, large family room and an expansive open-plan dining and living room with built-in bar and projector for five-star movie nights! Occupying a huge footprint and boasting a wide array of deluxe inclusions, the kitchen is centrally set for entertaining convenience and includes superlative storage, plumbed fridge space, stone benches, dual ovens and a large centre island.

Outdoor living has been embraced in a way that you could previously only dream of! An enclosed sunroom is the perfect indoor/outdoor room in which to escape, leading to a massive entertainer's pavilion. Framed by glass to bring nature's beauty at every angle as well as offering unrivalled all-weather function, beautiful timber pitched ceiling and polished decking will have you feeling holiday-at-home vibes year round! A massive outdoor kitchen will delight BBQ enthusiasts and all with excellent vantage over the in-ground pool and heated spa with retractable shade! Low-maintenance landscaping surrounds the property, with built-in cubby and endless room for children and pets to play in the fenced surrounds.

In addition to a separate study there is a fabulous array of six bedrooms available for family and guests, each with built-in wardrobes. The master is ideally separated in a separate wing for privacy and includes a large dressing room and ensuite with dual vanity. Two additional full sized bathrooms ensure the remainder of the house is well catered for. Additional features include a separate laundry, ducted air-conditioning, 5kw solar electricity, fantastic storage, water tank, chook house, double lock-up garage, security alarm, automatic entry gates and shed with second driveway access.

Nestled within its own private paradise with exceptional space in which to find serenity, this is a coveted location with quality acreage homes. A tranquil and highly sought-after area, there is also excellent access to everyday conveniences including public transport, M1 motorway, local shops and schooling to provide a dream lifestyle without compromise!

- 4100m2 fenced block with gated entry
