Entertainers Delight on 800sqm of prime level land with side

This lowset brick and tile family home offers buyers an array of opportunity for those looking for a low maintenance easy care modern family home.

This solid low maintenance brick and tile family home is a great opportunity for buyers in search for a nice home in a quiet area where they that can move in and enjoy.

Built on a generous and ever popular 800sqm block with a 20m frontage this great block offers owners the added bonus of side access providing extra room for larger boats or caravans or extra cars not wanting to be left on the street, the right had side of the home provides side access for smaller trailers etc. There was a DA approved 3 car carport out the front that the owner never got around to add however it's good to know there is scope to add extra improvements if need be.

This family home that has been well kept and looked after. There are new carpets in all bedrooms, air con in the main living area (under warranty), fans in bedrooms, the master bedroom is of a very good size with ensuite and built in robes, modern led lights along with solar hot water keep the power bills down while large glass windows allow plenty of light and air flow into this nice home.

The meals and spacious living area overlooks the large fully fenced back yard, the kitchen comes with modern appliances, plenty of cupboards and bench space & offers room to cater for large gatherings, the outlook from the kitchen area out to the pool area is what families like, the in ground salt water pool is a beauty and will provide years of enjoyment to come.

Outside is a huge modern covered patio area, this stand out entertainment area will accommodate the largest of gatherings and is the perfect go between the home and the outdoor areas, it's hard to find lots of yard space plus a beautiful pool as well as a large covered entertainment area making these areas complete, this is Queensland living and perfect for those that love to entertain and appreciate the extra land area to enjoy.
