Situated in the newly established and ever-growing suburb of Taylor, this brand-new family residence has now hit the market for you to call 'your own'. Set on a 495m2 block with uninterrupted views to the Black mountain tower, this one is set to impress even the fussiest of buyers.

The living area of this amazing home is open, spacious and filled with natural light throughout. Adjoining the combined living and dining area you have a master chef kitchen, ample cupboard space, quality stainless steel AEG appliances and waterfall Caesar stone benchtops. The large corner sliding doors will lead you out to the covered alfresco area making entertaining an absolute breeze, inside and out.

Featuring four spacious bedrooms with two bathrooms. The fourth bedroom is located at the front of the home with huge corner windows and barnyard sliding doors. This special room can easily be utilised as a luxury home office or a private lounge room. The master room consists of a deluxe ensuite and a huge walk in robe with plenty of drawers and shelving space, while the other rooms are serviced by a large ultra-modern main bathroom.

Robin Boyd Crescent, offers you convenient access to Amaroo shops, Casey Market Town, various local schools, ponds, walking paths, cafes/restaurants and only a short drive to Gungahlin Town Centre.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to secure this luxurious family residence today!
