The new & the old.

Located in the village of Glencoe in the beautiful New England region of northern NSW is this great property. Firstly you have a brand new home, with large open plan living and a large covered northern deck overlooking farmland with a huge bedroom, walk in robe & ensuite. In addition the new home, is the original Glencoe church which has retained many features and has been fitted out as separate accommodation, with one large bedroom, ensuite, & living room with kitchenette. There is also a new double garage, water tanks & established vege gardens. This would be a great property to use as a travelling base as there is still room on the 1,012 sqm block to park a caravan. Due to the location near the New England highway the property may suit as a Bed & Breakfast business. Give us a call to arrange an inspection.
