

48 Quarry St, Ipswich, QLD 4305

Sold - $598,500

House 3  1  1

FOR THE LOVE OF TRADITION. CBD.

Decked to please with a certain lifestyle that only the tradition of a timber character home offers you. Soak up the private setting and know you are home. Hop, skip and jump to the CBD and the Ipswich General hospital is walk to work!

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

You are in good company. Community minded neighbours. Immediate access to Denmark Hill Conservation Reserve and perfectly dog friendly. Call your Agent now to discover all that we have to offer you.

It is all about the grace of the traditional verandas to the elevated views to the mountains and Mt. Barney.

With sunlight streaming into each room and tantalising glimpses of your outside at every turn you are positioned for oh so much quiet and wildlife. The traditional VJ timbers and ceiling heights have been maintained along with the practicalities of your modern options.

Lucky you get to enjoy the investment of the new wiring, updated plumbing and generous update to the storage and car parking under the exceptional new deck. 5,000L water tank and irrigation system to the front gardens make it easy to care for your home.

COME INSIDE

Step onto your north facing front veranda and discover the peace only a Queenslander can offer you.

Three real bedrooms. The main bedroom presents with generous space and air-conditioning.

Your light filled kitchen presents with a 5 gas burner and room to create and cook.

The dining room will become your go to place with the views, breezes and so well connected to the lifestyle deck. Privacy and shade screens add to the seclusion.

Family bathroom is complete with full bath and room to restore and revive with access to the side deck.

Listed By

Helene Shephard

Phone: (07) 3281 3800

Mobile: 0411 896 158

