

74 Taylor St, Newtown, QLD 4350

Sold - 30/03/2021

House 3 1 1 1

Quintessential Cottage, Endless Possibilities

Welcome Home.

It is a pleasure to bring to market a family home that is embodies the quintessential workers cottage .

Occupying a substantial 611sqm (approx) level parcel in a highly sought-after address, this well presented residence is immediately liveable as is, while presenting outstanding potential for further enhancement.

The accommodation comprises three bedrooms. Two offer built in wardrobes, the third bedroom features multi-use functionality. The front sunroom is very inviting and offers idyllic front garden views. The kitchen is a generous size, with ample cupboard space.

The covered back deck offers you the chance to enjoy your amazing backyard, fully fenced it is a blank canvas waiting for your inspiration.

The outdoor laundry, reminds us of the homes' era, whilst the double car garage gives peace of mind being set back from the road.

This home is instantly captivating with its charming blend of timeless character and offers many stand out features.

The entire home features original timber floorboards, tounge and groove wood panelling, and an original victorian style claw bath. The ornate glass windows and expansive ceiling height will make you never want to leave.

This is truly a hidden gem, now available for sale; an inspection of this home is a must.

They say in Real Estate Location is everything, and this house ticks that box.

Walking distance to:
Our Lady of Lourdes Primary School
St Ursulas College
Newtown State School
Newtown Park
Opposite the nearest bus stop

Listed By
Ben Barrowclift

Ben Barrowclift

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.