Feel on top of the world at 32 Caratel Street. With a vista encompassing all of inner north Brisbane to the CBD and all the way out to the western ranges, you'll never tire of the stunning view. Combining this ultimate outlook with the supreme home on offer, you won't want to miss out on this absolutely unique property.

From the minute you enter the front gate, you feel at home. You are greeted by a charming fish pond and a serene, north facing, fully covered alfresco area. This space is linked to the kitchen and main lounge/dining areas by a large servery and stacker glass windows which amplify the pristine flow of the home.

With four bedrooms upstairs and large multi-purpose areas downstairs, this home can be enjoyed by the largest of families. The fourth upstairs bedroom has separate entry which makes it ideal for office or home business usage. The downstairs space has its own private access which could be used for teenagers, an elderly parent, or even to rent out for additional income.

Enjoy entertaining like never before! You won't need to go out to celebrate New Years or Riverfire, because you'll see the fireworks from your south-facing timber deck. This area is complemented by a stunning plunge pool with infinity edge as well as a running waterfall feature. Not only will you impress family and friends, you'll be living a sky-high luxury lifestyle like no other!

Every detail and finish of this home has been masterfully crafted and expertly thought out. Complete with boutique and bespoke finishes, from the custom designed master suite to the mind-blowing kitchen, the gorgeous flow, the stunning living and lounge space, the ground floor rumpus rooms, you will want it to be yours!
