If you are looking for an extraordinary place to re-settle the family, or to undertake a project that offers you heaps of upside potential then check this out. Your options are endless here with the added bonus of uninterrupted views across Chinderah Bay out to the horizon on the ocean.

Need garden/outdoor area, and pool space on a large fully useable block of 1619m2?

Found it!

This solidly built home offers spacious rooms with plenty of options for you to re-design the floorplan if you are that way inclined. The open plan, central living-dining area, flows through to the rear sunroom where the sunrise greets you. The rear deck overlooks lawn space fenced for pets and kids.

The spacious kitchen enjoys those views and offers a large central island bench, is functional and practical, with all electric appliances including a dishwasher, and a true walk-in butler's pantry.

The larger than usual bedrooms are on a separate hallway for privacy.

The master suite is spacious with a walk-in shower in the ensuite and large robes spaces as well as built in dressers and a private side balcony. The retro tiles are duplicated in the family bathroom with lilac coloured suites.

Internal access from the auto oversized lock-up garage, all on one level. Plenty of parking options on the block which get those extra vehicles off the roadside.

Under the house is an enclosed studio room with bathroom space separated from the huge workshop/hobby/ storage space.
