

212 Gumma Rd, Gumma, NSW 2447

Sold - 7/06/2021

House 5 3 4

180 Degree Uninterrupted Water View

Inspection of this property is a MUST! Truly, you will not believe how generous this home is or how expansive the river views are.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Not only is there an extremely spacious split level 3bedroom 2bathroom home complete with parents retreat and home office space this property comprises of an additional 2bedroom 1bathroom fully self-contained accommodation ideal for extended family and guests. Alternatively, you could choose to let this area as an Airbnb, an excellent opportunity for additional income.

The main dwelling has recently undergone recent renovations featuring quality timber work throughout, beautiful timber flooring, a brand new stylish and extremely spacious kitchen and laundry. Outdoor living will be easy on the well- appointed big deck, sit back and relax with a drink or three or lie back on a hammock and take a restful nap.

Want more...this property also has an entirely separate studio that once again could potentially be tenanted drawing further income.

There is something magical about living beside the water and this beautiful northerly orientated home is no exception, capturing gentle breezes and views across the majestic Nambucca river.

Located only minutes to Macksville CBD, this is a spectacular riverside property offering 180degree water view, a lifestyle that many have dreamt of. Be the first to call, before it is sold!

Listed By

Barbara Tobias

Phone: (02) 6568 5766

