Residential Land

Idyllic lifestyle & country living

All roads lead to Waterview! This new development in the vibrant town of Rokeby represents an elite and exclusive opportunity to secure land in an unbeatable location. Surrounded by rolling green hills and breathtaking rural views it is time to dream big and build your forever home. With Waterview comes a completely new lifestyle and a world of its own with Rokeby Market for incredible produce and a wide variety of walking tracks close by. With blocks of land becoming smaller and costs rising, these impressive sized lots are where you want to be. With a move to Waterview you're getting the best of both worlds with the laid back country lifestyle complemented by the close proximity of Melbourne. We'd recommend you grab the family for a day out so you can experience and see what all the fuss is about.
