Stunning 4-Bedroom Family Home On Corner Block

LJHooker is proud to present this stunning corner block home, perfect for new growing families or investors! This home features a spacious master bedroom, along with a WIR and an attached sparkling en-suite. 3 other decent size bedrooms are located towards the back of the home, along with a centralized bathroom and laundry room for convenience.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

The dining and lounge merge to form one large spacious area, looking out onto the backyard and alfresco, perfect for entertaining or spending time with the family together in one place. Off the lounge is the kitchen which includes beautiful appliances such as a dishwasher, rangehood, oven and cooktops!

Moving outside is the large backyard area that wraps around the side of the house, courtesy of the delightful corner block the property is located on. The laundry room also has easy access to the side yard, plus back access to the double, secure remote control lock up garage, also, of course, accessible from the front.
