A Cracker in Canopus - Fantastic Family Home in Sought after

118 Canopus Street, Coorparoo is on the market. The original owners have bought elsewhere and have put their lovely home on the market for the first time. Set within a quiet leafy pocket of a very desirable suburb, this beautiful two-story brick and tile home built by GW Homes is going to auction. Immaculately presented with nothing to spend this house is one you cannot afford to miss out on. As you enter this lovely quality-built house you can feel the love that's been lavished on the home for the last 48 years. It's now time for the current owners to pass the keys on to a new family.
