Perfect if you are looking for something out of the ordinary, the homes could also be refreshed into a stunning country retreat.

There is plenty of usable land, in the past, this property was used for horses and there was even a round yard at one stage. And if parking is what you are after, there is room for caravans and trucks with multiple workshops plus a machinery shed.

A tree-lined driveway leads past dams, sheds and fruit trees to the log cabin style home that is sure to charm. Inside you will find spacious open living, large timber kitchen, pitched ceilings and beautiful wood panelling.

Glass doors and skylights in the living area let in plenty of natural light and you also get the benefit of a lovely cross breeze.

The Tassie Oak kitchen boasts plenty of workspace & ½ there is storage galore and extra-large fridge space too.

The home also has 3 good size bedrooms and a large family bathroom with timber panelling and cabinetry (including a laundry chute!)

The wide, wrap around verandahs are the perfect place to relax and take in views past the Hinze Dam spillway to the mountains. There is also a paved area with a built in BBQ for entertaining.

Walk down through the gardens to a second home, built in the 1950's and lovingly maintained - most of the house is still in original condition. This home includes 2 bedrooms (one with separate entrance), air conditioned lounge room, eat-in kitchen, covered outdoor area and fenced yard.

The property has been thoughtfully landscaped, with rock retaining walls, beautiful native gardens, fruit trees and pathways.
