Make your way up the winding and gently sloped driveway through a mix of, tropical gardens, grassed areas, rainforest, along passed the separate self-contained studio apartment up to the private sanctuary.

Upon entering the home, you are greeted with the amazing high ceilings, open plan kitchen, dining, and lounge area. The large modern kitchen includes large oven, cooktop, ample storage, double island bench, pantry, dishwasher, large fridge, and breakfast bar. Perfect for entertaining with family and friends or simply relaxing, the expansive dining and lounge area take in the breathtaking views over the pool and beyond. The pool is simply stunning, surrounded by an expansive deck area you will love sitting in the pool with a cool drink in hand, relaxing on the sun lounges, cooking on the BBQ, or dining outside whilst taking in the spectacular views.

On the same level you will find the first of the large bedrooms, with high ceilings, air conditioning and fans, along with its own private Ensuite including spa and shower. Even enjoy the stunning views from your shower and toilet, yes from everywhere including the toilet seat you will love the views. On the eastern side of the home, you will find the 2nd large bedroom with air conditioning, fans, louvred windows and Ensuite. Wake up and look directly over the pool and stunning Coral Sea views.

When it's time to sit back and relax whether you want to watch the footy, your favourite movie or even Bold and the Beautiful you or the kids will love your own airconditioned cinema room with large screen, surround sound, along with multiple cinema chairs and lounges. Just add popcorn and a cold drink, absolute perfection. There is also a separate toilet on this level along with the large laundry with plenty of storage.

Make your way up the staircase to the expansive master bedroom with air conditioning and fans. You will adore the private balcony with stunning views of over the Coral Sea, rainforest, and pool. Behind the internal wall you will find built in robes and an amazing Ensuite with rainforest views, double basin, shower, and separate toilet.

Outside you will find a 4-car carport and plenty of additional parking space on both sides of the home with plenty of room for a boat, caravan, or visitors. Approximately 25 meters away from the main home is the fully furnished, separate air conditioned 1 bedroom self contained apartment with its own kitchen
