

3 Myer St, Redland Bay, QLD 4165

Sold - 5/05/2021

House 4  2  2

Prime Position

On the market for the first time in over 40 years.

3 Myer Street Redland Bay is one of the last remaining properties of this size.

The solid brick and tile construction has been a testament to the original build quality some 40+ years ago.

Sitting on a monster 1077m2, this is one of the biggest blocks with in a stones throw of the water and golf course.

The property consist of 4 good size bed rooms all with ceiling fans and 3 with built-ins

The master is more like a master suite with a huge room and sitting area, along with en-suite and air-con.

Main bathroom has been recently renovated, along with all the floors in the living areas.

The property has split air-con throughout, along with crim-safe on all doors and windows.

There is a huge double carport coming off Myer st, along with a huge double lock up garage and work shop coming off Main street.

Opportunities like this rarely come along, and the potential for immediate or future growth for a property like this is massive.

Make no mistake this property will sell very quickly.
