Relaxed rural living minutes from Noosa

This beautiful Queenslander offers the very best in relaxed acreage living with an expansive home, a picture-perfect outlook and an abundance of peace and privacy. Your new abode is set on a 1.35-acre lot enveloped by lush and tranquil gardens ensuring a nature-filled view from both balconies.

Inside, gleaming timber floors flow underfoot while the large windows allow plenty of natural light to fill the rooms.

There is a dining room, a formal lounge and an open-plan living room, all connected through doorways that showcase ornate fretwork that pays homage to this home's history.

A modern and stylish kitchen awaits the home chef, complete with quality appliances, plenty of storage and a breakfast bar where friends can sip wine and enjoy nibbles as you whip up dinner. You can dine alfresco on the rear verandah or wander out to the front deck and take in views over the lily-filled pond.

There are four bedrooms on this level, all with built-in robes including the owner's suite that is air-conditioned and also enjoys an ensuite. The central bathroom services the home and there is plenty of storage throughout to complete this level.

Downstairs, you will discover a separate living quarters with a bedroom, a study, bathroom, laundry and a rumpus, perfect for accommodating extended family or guests when they come to enjoy this piece of paradise. VJ panelling features on the walls and there are ceiling fans throughout this level, as well as direct access out to a rear patio.

Extra features include parking for three cars under the home, room for storing a boat and caravan as well as a large shed with space for four cars so you can bring all your toys with you. You will live just a 10-minute drive from the heart of Noosa while local schools, shops and restaurants are all only moments away.
