House 3 1 1

Renovation Rescue

There's the potential plus to renovate and enjoy this character filled home situated in central Goonellabah that's handy to the university, schools, shops and sports fields. Set on a 740 square metre block the home captures a rear view of the city below and towards the stunning sunsets over the distant ranges. Loaded with features including hardwood floors, ornate cornices, combustion fireplace, some coloured glass windows and plenty of natural light. Three spacious bedrooms are at the front of the home whilst the large living room looks onto the fenced backyard. The kitchen and bathroom are functional and with scope to add your own touches. This is a great opportunity to personalise and create your own home or add to your investment portfolio.
