House 4 1 2

Beautifully renovated blend of old school charm with all the Set on a large block with a huge yard, this character filled heritage cottage is located on a quite village road, taking full advantage of the picturesque rural vista. The magic of this home is how the owners have managed to seamlessly combine the old and the new under one roof.

The front of the cottage retains all the original features with Ironbark timber floors throughout, high ceilings and gorgeous timber panelling. There are 2 large bedrooms, the lounge with wood fireplace and dining area that open to the front deck, where you can sit and watch the sunrise with your morning coffee.

New additions to this home include a fully appointed kitchen with prestige appliances, large family sized luxury bathroom and an extra 2 great sized bedrooms.

Access to the double lock up garage is through the rear lane and a large private gate. This home is ready for you, there is absolutely nothing that needs doing just move in and enjoy.

Imagine all this and living only 24kms to the closest beach at Evans Head, this truly is an amazing opportunity for a family or someone looking to enter the property market.
