This quality built "overlander" home is a real treat with plenty of space for the large family including 5 bedrooms, a large yard and a huge entertaining area. Everything about this home makes sense with its logical design to make great use of space and to allow easy movement of people through the home. The generous kitchen with huge walk in pantry over looks both the living and dining areas, with easy access through to the undercover entertaining area. There is heaps of room left over for a good sized yard thanks to the way this home has been positioned and includes a wide concrete footpath out to the garden shed.

Features of this home include:

- * Huge entertaining area
- * Double garage
- * Internal store room
- * Ensuite to master bedroom
- * Fully airconditioned
- * Quality polished tiles through out
- * Walk in pantry off the kitchen
- * Garden shed

Located across the road from one of Johnston's largest parks on a quiet street, this home is truly 1 of a kind and an inspection is a must. Homes of this quality and price do not stay on the market very long. If you have been waiting for that perfect home to come along, here it is. Make contact today.
