Located 5 Minutes from Kyogle is a stunning 100 acre property that will provide a lucky buyer with a rare opportunity to develop a small farm close to town. Perched on a south facing ridge is a gorgeous house pad that has been levelled and is simply waiting for someone to place their dream home on it. Power is running across the property and water is currently supplied by a bore that pumps up to a poly tank. The front of the block is flat and is divided into small holding yards that are equipped with water troughs and shelters. The paddock then gently rises up to the house site that supplies views for miles down the valley, it then rises to a spectacular escarpment at the back. Simply put this property offers a near blank canvas awaiting your designs. Don't hesitate as this property won't last long, call for an immediate inspection.
