The Great Australian Dream

Perched on the crest of Ross Street, with potential views to the west sits this classic country style home featuring a wide wrap around verandah, perfect for entertaining any time of the year.

Cypress pine floors feature throughout the living areas and kitchen and the carpeted bedrooms all have their very own French doors which lead to the oversized deck.

Both bathroom and ensuite are new with the spacious main having a large corner bath plus there is a separate w/c.

The gas kitchen boasts a 900mm Stainless Steel upright stove, double sink, and adjacent to this is a European style laundry.

Dado walls are a showcase throughout this cozy home which is warmed by a gas fire place as well as split system r/c air-conditioning.

There is plenty of storage underneath as well as room for two cars and a work area.

All this on a fully fenced block a level 10-minute walk to the village centre.
