IDYLIC WEEKENDER OR PLACE TO CALL HOME IN TARBUCK BAY

- * 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom high-set home with plenty of living space
- * Dual rear balconies & a sun-drenched front verandah
- * Quiet cul-de-sac setting on the fringe of national parks
- * Sensational water lifestyle ideal for the boating/fishing enthusiast
- * Pristine location yet only a short drive to beaches & amenities

Tucked away towards the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, this hidden gem is a tranquil find in beautiful Tarbuck Bay. Only 3-hours north of Sydney, the property makes a sensational weekender, investment or everyday home and is ideal for buyers seeking a relaxed lifestyle by the water.

A sun-drenched timber deck and a level frontage welcomes you on arrival of this 2 storey home which seamlessly blends in with its lush and leafy surrounds. Stepping inside via glass sliders on the upper floor, you are rewarded with an open plan lounge and dining room which flow to the well-equipped kitchen. The living zones spill out onto a full-width balcony that serves up an elevated, tree-lined view - the perfect backdrop for barbeques and drinks with friends after a busy day spent out on the boat. Accommodation on this floor comprises 2 bedrooms with built-ins which share a central bathroom with an updated vanity and a separate toilet.

On the lower level awaits a generously sized rumpus/family room with a kitchenette. Serviced by a 3-way bathroom, this is a versatile space that could be used as a teenagers retreat, home office or accommodation for guests.

Other highly desirable features of the home include an internal laundry, a double carport, security screens and split system air-conditioning. Tarbuck Bay is renowned for its excellent fishing, boating, kayaking and swimming spots, as well as its proximity to stunning national parks including Booti Booti and Wallingat where you'll find walking trails and bird watching. Surf beaches such as Cellito, Elizabeth and Blues Beach are also just minutes away.
