MODERN, INTOWN LIVING

An absolute delight to inspect is this 3 bedroom, double story townhouse in a fabulous little development known as Penang Boardwalk. Located at the base of Myer Street hill that provides quick and easy walking and driving access to everything in town. And where else can you find a home in the town area where you can also enjoy views of the north arm lake? It's a vista you'll never tire of.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Internally this spacious home that also includes a 3 person lift as alternate access to the main upstairs living area, kitchen, main bedroom and outdoor living is loaded with space at every turn. Much more than a unit - this appealing to the eye building is a home, a home of great proportions that is the best solution we've found for those wanting to scale down from a house and a quarter acre block to something much easier to maintain providing you with a lifestyle you deserve. There's no shortage of space storage here, with every single room and living area excelling and will accommodate any piece of furniture you have.

Appealing also is that each property is separately titled meaning there is NO owners corporation/body corporate fees to consider. Be part of this fabulous community and book your inspection today.
