House 3 1 2

Full of Fond Family Memories

This much loved family home is offered to the marketplace for the first time since it was built some 72 years ago. Situated on an elevated allotment in the popular suburb of Lismore Heights, the home captures a stunning vista over the city and beyond to the hills. Features include three bedrooms, polished timber floors, combustion fireplace, high-set ceilings, ornate cornice and period light fittings and chandeliers. There's an enclosed rear patio, terraced yard and a spacious front verandah that would make the ideal spot for a dinner party to capture the sparkling city lights. This property is loaded with potential and is sure to captivate interest from first home buyers, investors and those looking to make some memorable family moments of their own.
