Consisting of four spacious bedrooms, two bathrooms (recently renovated) and two living areas, what really makes this home special is the finer details. Not only does the home boast an abundance of native wildlife and well manicured grounds and gardens but for those who love to entertain, it boasts a large outdoor entertaining area which flows out seamlessly from the internal living areas and has an outdoor spa.

For Dad, there is a big shed for storing all those tools and toys and for the cooler mountain climate, you'll adore the log fireplace fit for the family to gather or to watch a favourite TV show.

Whether you've been looking for a holiday retreat to "escape back to nature" or a place to call your permanent home, then 26 Ee-Jung road presents tremendous value.
