Property has numerous sites to build your dream home on, with original homestead set at the top of the property. Featuring touches of 'days gone by,' a double sided brick fireplace structure, (not in use) 'the old copper' washer and timber hardwood floors.

The homestead of yesteryear requires attention and a little TLC, however, is presently lived in.

There is a Colourbond shed on the top section approx. 2.83ha, 7 acres which is split by road with stunning views over Nimbin itself and out to Nimbin Rocks and the valley views.

From the homestead side of the property the views are stunning overlooking the property and mountain views.

You will never go dry as this property has an abundance of water and featuring a a good spring fed dam. There is a central laneway to travel down to the fig tree, overlooking the flats below and onto the stunning creek.

This family farm holds lots of history, previously running Dairy cattle, then beef and growing of crops like corn and potatoes.

There are plenty of outbuildings, cattle yards, and good fencing throughout, with good land and great soil being a definite. Views are an added bonus and distance to town is the location set 5km to Nimbin.

This stunning property is waiting for its new owner to take to the next set level.

Or simply - Enjoy the stunning creek its swimming holes, its views, and good useable paddocks.
