The kitchen sets the tone of the rest of the home with its smoky mirrored splashback and sleek fresh finishes, walk in pantry and quality appliances. A waterfall stone island bench and breakfast bar separates it from a lovely light and open plan living and dining space with stackable doors overlooking the alfresco and the leafy outdoors. The master bedroom suite is a desirable space with a private retreat or second living room, ensuite and large WIR.

Some would say this is a socialists dream with its appealing outdoors complete with timber decking, feature ceiling and fans, custom built outdoor seating and benches with stone feature and space for the must have fire pit for wintery evenings. The backyard is lovely and green, very low maintenance with inground reticulation and is brimming with privacy for the backyard games. There is a very large shed to the rear of the block in addition to the garage which has high roller doors with full side access, ideal for the caravan or boat enthusiasts. Almost new with a clever floorplan and stacked with quality fixtures and fittings, ducted heating and cooling you can be assured an inspection will not disappoint.
