You'll also love this peaceful sought-after location, just moments to the wide open fairways of Palmerston Golf Course. The home is also conveniently set only minutes to all major amenities in nearby Palmerston town centre.

The home is set well back from the street with a large, manicured front lawn and a long driveway that connects into the over-sized integrated double carport.

Entry to the home is via the charming covered front portico and the huge open-plan living/dining area will impress from the moment you step inside.

The living/dining area flows through to the huge poolside rear patio and also the large immaculate modern kitchen, that will easily cater for the growing family. With stainless steel appliances including dishwasher, a high breakfast bar and ample cupboard space plus a full-length double pantry.

There is a shower over a large corner bath to the main bathroom that is superbly presented in modern white. The quality continues in the master ensuite that features a large, luxurious shower.

Five generous bedrooms all capture good natural light and stylish glass louvre windows to the master bedroom capture invite cooling tropical breezes.

The fenced in-ground pool stars in the low-maintenance backyard that also features easy-care low maintenance lawn and gardens.

There is split-system air conditioning and ceramic floor tiles throughout the home. Floor-to-ceiling storage in the well-equipped internal laundry and a separate storage room under the roof-line adds practicality.

See this impressive home in person to truly appreciate its size and quality. Organise your inspection today.
