Grab with Both Hands

This is a fabulous opportunity to own a home in one of Orange's most superb streets. Within walking distance to Calare Public School and Orange High School this sturdy red bricker with fabulous bones is ready for someone to grab and turn it into their forever home. Perfect for the family, 5 Breen Street boasts four large bedrooms all with built-ins and offers a separate wing for the master bedroom. The main bathroom has been updated and the home offers loads of storage throughout. In the heart of the home is a highly functional kitchen with loads of storage, dishwasher and brand new oven. Plenty of space for all with the two living areas, one of which faces east and is filled morning sun. Heating includes a ducted gas system as well as a gas wood-look fireplace and a split system air conditioner. Another feature is great rear yard access which leads to a double shed with carport. Rarely do homes such as these present themselves. Grab with two hands - opportunity awaits!
